Zad.1

A bad day at school

Yesterday was not a good day. It started badly when I got up late and had to run to catch the bus. ¹ _____ When I arrived at school, I was hungry and tired. Suddenly, I realised my Physics project wasn't in my school bag. ² _____ That's why, before I went to bed, I put it on the kitchen table so I would see it when I went downstairs for breakfast!

My teacher was very nice about it but my bad luck hadn't finished. We had PE in our next lesson. I decided to play football but it was a bad choice. Someone kicked me just as I was trying to score a goal. ³ _____ I couldn't even walk! Then we had a test In Maths. I was telling my friend about the problem with my leg and, at that moment, the teacher looked up at us and thought I was cheating. She was angry and made me sit at her desk to finish the test. When I got home, I told my mum and dad about my day. ⁴ _____ Mum took care of my leg and dad bought me my favourite pizza for dinner. Maybe it wasn't such a bad day after all!

- A I had spent hours writing it and I was determined not to forget it.
- B Fortunately, they were very sympathetic.
- C She told me not to worry but I felt really bad.
- D My leg really hurt and I couldn't play anymore.
- E I almost missed it but the driver saw me running and waited for me.
